2016 Longmont Library Festival Anthology Submission Guidelines

Please read carefully.

All works should be appropriate for general audiences.

An editorial committee will decide which entries to publish based on a combination of factors including:

- ♦ Quality
- ♦ Appropriateness
- ♦ Adherence to guidelines
- ♦ Available space in anthology

The decision of the committee is final.

Submission does not imply inclusion in this anthology or any future publication.

There is no minimum length requirement, but all entries should be under 6000 words; maximum size for artwork is 8x10"; artwork may be reproduced in black and white. The committee may choose one work to be reproduced in color for the anthology's cover.

An official entry form must accompany each work submitted.

Entries will not be returned. Please save or make a copy for your own use.

Submissions may be delivered to the library's information desk, or mailed to:

Friends of the Longmont Library

Longmont, CO 80501

If you submit an entry on paper, please submit a clean copy, typed in a standard font, double-spaced, on white 8 1/2 x 11" paper.

Digital submissions are preferred. Please submit written works in MS Word or PDF format. Illustrations can be in any standard graphic format.

Entries may be submitted on paper, or in electronic format on compact disc or USB drive or by email attachment. Please be sure the disc/drive is labeled with your name and the title of the work. Submitted media (disc, USB drive, etc) WILL NOT BE RETURNED. You may also send electronic format submissions as attachments to an email to:

Steve.Kenworthy@LongmontColorado.gov

Deadline for submission of entries is 5:00 pm, Monday, August 1, 2016.
